Kapitel 3: Just grey

Just grey

God told us to be quiet, why?
Mum told us to be brave, why?
Dad told us to be strong, why?
Friends told us to be though, why?

Life is hart and long, a adventure for everyone.
Generations change our World.
But when will it stop? The world in danger and a generation of heros?

We are brave,
We are strong,
We are though.

Just as you said, well now where are the enemys?
Gone! Dead! Destroyed! Who's better?
Black or white, night or day, darkness or light, Demons or humans, evil or good, devil or god?
Who knows? Just say your neutral the it is all fine.
