Kapitel 5: shining angel

I sit there again,
the gun in my hand.
Last time you came and stop me,
But now no one is there.
You left, left me in a cold grey world.
My angel, I swear not to do it.
But nothing hold me in this world.
My shining angel, soon we'll be together.
I can't stand it any longer
a world without you, a world without sun and light.
This world will not miss me.
My shining angel I'm here,
the same place as last time,
the same place we met first.
You give my life a reason.
And, now you're gone I lose everything.

A shoot break the quiet night.
The end, and a reintegration.

My shining angel now we're together.
For ever free in the endlessness of death.
