...I need you so!

Von countess-caine

'Life is hard, just carry on!'
Everybody tells me so,
But it feels like all is gone,
Nothing do I know.

Life and Death and all between,
School and friends and family.
So many things I think I've seen,
And many never let me be,

As I am and how I feel,
What I think is not for real!

I guess I'm out, left all alone,
And just you few support me still,
It hits me in my marrowbone
I can't forget and never will.

Cause you, you helped me out so much
And listened to me all night long,
When I felt caught in the hutch,
Needed I to be so strong.

Now to trust and fight once more,
Makes me hopeful to the core!

In Chemie war mir langweilig... und ich wollte mal etwas aus MEINER Sicht schreiben...
und eine neue "Versform" hab ich auch getestet... klingt teilweise echt scheiße...
*drops*

boring chemistry lessons... I tried to write something from MY point of view... and I also tried some new verseform... sounds crap sometimes... u_u~
