Kapitel 5: Flower Angel

A smile like the sun
The voice of an angel
Some things that never should gone
Sometimes fail

Do you know this feeling
Everytime you look at a flower?
That thing that's unknown
And then it dies

She kept my life with light
The hair floating in the wind
No choise I can hide
I'm out of mind

But everytime I see this flower
This feeling grows stronger
It's like you call my name once more
And tomorrow they will be gone

You embraced my heart so many times
But I couldn't protect yours that night
Maybe I repaid my crimes
But it wasn't right

Do you know this feeling
You wake up and the flowers are gone
To a better place
Where a angel is waiting

So please take care of them
They will wait on your grave
Take care 'till I can do it again
With the light of my life
