

And there is no sound

Von Jared_Padalecki

Watch the sky turn black and gray
Wait for the thunder to come
And wish to see the lightning

Surprise me and sit down with me
Doesn't matter there's a storm around us
And we're right in the middle of it

Don't be afraid, trust me instead
I will keep you safe no matter what
And please grant me this one dream

*"Romance me...like you mean it
Hold me tight and kiss me
Right before we are struck by lightning"*

And then there will be no sound
No, we can't hear anything
And there is no one there but us
